

Real Property Management is committed to providing it's clients with the best the industry has to offer. In addition to the excellent customer service and support you have come to know and expect, RPM is always researching new ways to more effectively it's valued clients.

With internet usage continually on the rise in every market, it has become more important then ever to advertise vacant rental properties on the internet. Today's primary internet users are between 18 - 35 years of age. Research indicates the highest percentage of tenants are between the same ages. In an attempt to reach this growing market, Real Property Management has negotiated reduced contracts with over 25 of the nations leading internet vacancy advertisers.

Some of these companies include:

RentClicks	HomeRentalAds	ThisProperty
ApartmentFrog	AOLRealEstate	BackPage
RentalSource	RentFinders	Vast
LiveDeal	House.info	HotPads
GoogleBase	Sublet	Geebo
Olx.com	Edgeio	eFind
